Smashwords - About Josanne Leid, author of 'Myths and Maxims'

La Diabliesse is a character in Caribbean folklore. The legend says that she was born human, but her deals with the devil made her become a demon. To others, her poise, figure and dress make her seem beautiful.

La Diabliesse - Wikipedia

Laryngotracheobronchitis is a common childhood illness affecting 3% of children. Most of the affected children are aged between 6 months and 3 years, with a peak incidence of 60 per 1000 child-years in those children aged between 1 and 2 years []. Epidemiological studies suggest that 1-5% of children with croup are admitted to hospital and 2-3% of those admitted children, require intubation [].
