Did The Magicians, Book 1 inspire you to do anything? If I find a second hand paperback, I might pick it up, as I suspect I would get a better insight into mental health, but its a hard thing to appreciate in audio, given how it is written. Any additional comments? Just get it paperback, I reckon its worth it over audiobook.

'The Magicians' season 1: Book versus TV differences

The Magicians isn't a bad book; in fact it's got the makings of a pretty good book if it weren't for the fact that this book is boring. Quinten and his friends aren't the best of people, but they are characters with flaws and that's pretty neat to see. However, I can see why lots of reviews say they're bad characters.
