Ginger. One of the better etymological dictionaries of English, not because it's especially comprehensive but on the contrary because it takes a smallish selection (around 8,000 words only) and treats each entry in detail. Unlike traditional dictionaries of this kind, which work backwards in time, Ayto begins at the beginning and works forwards,...

As the book implies it talks about the origins of words. Many times, the origins of words also give them deeper meaning. The origin of words may explain why sometimes they're spelled so strangely. All words cannot fit into a single book efficiently so Linda and Roger Flavell show us words that have a story to tell.
